ABOUT US

My journey began on the wrestling mats at Messiah University and led me through coaching positions with the Baltimore Ravens, University of Oregon, and Clemson Football before bringing me home to Lancaster County. My passion goes beyond sets and reps—it's about building men of character and faith who lead with purpose.

I've experienced firsthand how easy it is to tie one's identity to athletic performance. Through my own failures and the mentorship of strong Christian men, I've learned that physical training has value, but spiritual training transforms lives.

God has equipped me to change the men of Lancaster and beyond—one man at a time.
